Retired Department of the Army Civilians (DAC) to receive ID cards

FORT POLK, LA - Great news for retired Department of the Army Civilians (DAC) and spouses of active and retired DACs. Effective immediately, Fort Polk will issue Identification cards to retired DACs, their spouses, and the spouses of active DACs.

These ID cards are issued for the purpose of utilizing Morale Welfare and Recreation activities on Army installations only.

They will not authorize use of the commissary, PX, or medical facilities.

If you are a retired DAC or the spouse of an active or retired DAC, and do not possess any other type of DOD ED card (retired military, DAC or contractor ID, etc.) You may receive the DA Form 1602 ID card indicating you are a retired DAC or spouse.

The requirements to apply for the card are as follows:

- Retired DAC - You must complete a DD Form 1172* (application for uniformed services ID card); bring it along with your SF-50-B (notification of personnel action) showing your DAC retired status or DA Form 3434 (notification of personnel action - non-appropriated funds) and an official picture ID (state drivers license, etc.)
- Spouse of a DAC or retired DAC - your sponsor (spouse who is the DAC or retired DAC) MUST accompany you to the ID card section. You must also bring a completed DA Form 1172, your marriage license, and an official picture ID.

ID card office hours are for these types of cards are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information, please call the Adjutant General ID card section at 531-1430 or 531-1891.
